

Treasurer Edward H. Fennessy of the Central Foundry Company announces that on and after Jan. 1 the stock of the company will be transferred at its own office, 37 Wall Street.

Brooklyn Union Elevated 4 per cent. and 5 per cent. bonds and Kings County Elevated 4 per cent. bonds will be guaranteed on two days each month by the Brooklyn Heights Railroad Company at 85 Clinton Street, Brooklyn, between 9 A. M. and 12 M.

CITY EXAMINER ARRESTED.

Held for Receiving Valuable Necklace
Lost in Brooklyn.

Peter S. Dorrington of 875 Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn, an examiner in the city Finance Department, was arrested yesterday on the charge of receiving stolen goods. He was arraigned in the Lee Avenue Court and released on $1,000 bail furnished by William Maguire, Democratic leader of the Sixth Assembly District.

Not long ago Mrs. Albert B. Strange of 75 East Sixty-fifth Street, Manhattan, lost a pearl necklace, valued at $2,200, on a day she visited Mrs. Lanzetelle's kindergarten, at 29 West Forty-second Street. A few days ago Police Commissioner Bingham received a letter from a woman saying that Mrs. Peter Dorrington, the examiner's wife, was wearing a necklace far beyond what her husband could afford. Deputy Commissioner Wood was put on the case.

Mrs. Strange identified the necklace. Mrs. Dorrington said that it had been given to her by her second cousin, John Crowley, 13 years old, who had said he found it. She and her husband told the detectives that their cousin was out of town, and that they did not know his address, though Mr. Dorrington admitted that he had given the boy a gold watch for Christmas. He and his wife later admitted that the boy had been employed for a time at Mrs. Lanzetelle's kindergarten. The detectives then made the arrest.